Thinking about Sex

"The typical modern man practically never thinks about sex. He dreams of it, of course, by day and by night; he craves for it, he pictures it, is stimulated or depressed by it, drools over it. But this frothing, steaming activity is not thinking. Drooling is not thinking, picturing is not thinking, craving is not thinking, dreaming is not thinking. Thinking means bringing the power of the mind to bear: thinking about sex means striving to see sex in its innermost reality and in the function it is meant to serve." (Frank Sheed, "The Nature of Sex and Marriage", Society and Sanity, par 1)

II. Principles for Sexual Morality

A. Marriage & Family

1) Marriage is a permanent and exclusive union, a communion of persons equal in dignity

"So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate" (Mt 19:6, Mk 10:8-9)

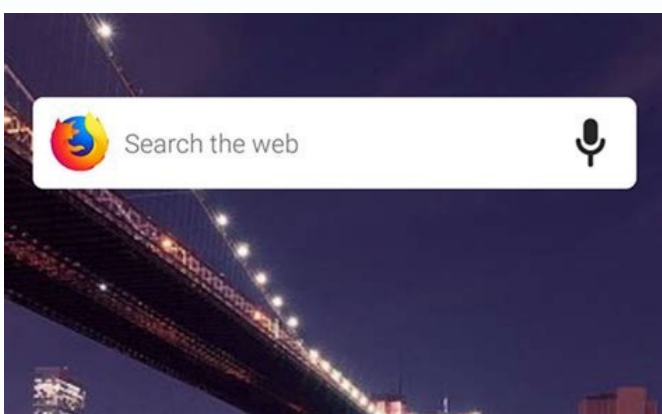

"The intimate partnership of married life and love has been established by the creator and qualified by his laws, and it is rooted in the conjugal covenant of irrevocable personal consent. Hence, by that human act whereby the spouses mutually bestow and accept each other, a relationship arises which by divine will and in the eyes of society too is durable. In view of the good of society as well as that of the spouses and their offspring, this sacred bond does not depend on human decision." (Vatican II, Condom et spes, 48)

- Erotic love and affection call for exclusivity and permanence.
- Polygamy is disadvantageous to the multiple partners and others.
- Divorce almost always harms children and often is bad for women.
- The self-giving of marital union calls for indissolubility. (Germain Grisez, Living a Christian Life, 9, A, 3)

2) Characteristics of Marital Love

(Pope Paul VI, Humanae vitae, 9)

- 1) Human - flesh & spirit, more than emotion, act of the will, grows in daily life → union of hearts
- 2) Total - special form of friendship, share everything, amenable, receives all & gives all
- 3) Faithful - shows faithfulness of God to His people, I will not abandon you, forsake you
- 4) Exclusive - gift to one person to the exclusion of all others, you and you alone
- 5) Fruitful - love goes beyond couple, destined to raise up new life, children supreme gift of marriage
