Down 4, 2021 version 2.6. 3 -We solved a big bug that caused the application crash when you select a device to control my remote control has broken, and I thought it would be nice if my phone could be my TV remote control, They should invent it and so I checked the Apple Store for my million dollar idea and here it is! But in all seriousness it works so well, it was a kid's game to set up (connects to TV via WIFI)! I ended up paying the $$for no ad, since I am using it as my primary remote, but that is even more convenient then a replacement! To think that every time you ask yourself where the remote is use the phone! Well, I could say something I would like checks to download once and make it so u don't keep hold every time u wants to watch different stuff in the app I just wish I could open it and be there every time because I know my mother witch is of the old generation would keep asking me how do I get back to the remote if she hit another button I like the app, but the controls have to b there every time u open the app how to get the app main screen ur be remote different from the one I like how u can buy a new one on this app and I like how it controls ur tv in few seconds I just wish the main screen was the remote without having to download and I hate how I have to buy a remote add free for 5.99 my original remote doesn't make me buy add free that's just stupid as it adds I'm in a remote control just because it's on my phone good thing I just wanted to try this app and actually have my remote control otherwise I would have to turn off my volume when it's late night trying to control it. Thanks girls and guys for making this app if u fixed those two things u would have a 5 stars. Literally an ad (place an ad here) pops up about every 3 seconds or two clicks (place an ad here) on this remote control. So be (insert ad here) cautious if you turn down the volume (insert ad here). If you turn off the TV (enter the ad here), you need to repeat the scan for the TV (enter the ad here). Now at least two different tv versions (insert ad here) pop-up for the same tv (insert ad here) at the time of scanning. Without all ads (insert ad here), this (insert ad here) remote works fine anyway, (insert ad here) would not work for (insert ad here) turning on (insert ad here) the tv. For the amount (insert an ad here) of ads that are posted (insert an ad here) constantly I'm sure they're paying (insert an announcement) for the space to run, (place an ad here) is not a reason why this company (place an ad here) should ask (place an ad here) people to pay (place an ad here) to remove the ads.

Nothing (insert ad here) but a money (insert ad here) grab app as usual (insert ad here) these days.
